Montgomery is a thriving community with a rich history and picturesque charm. Located in the southern portion of Somerset County, it is just north of Princeton and bordered by the Millstone River to the east and the Sourland Mountains to the west. The area is characterized by sweeping vistas, meandering roads, pastures, and small villages. Recreation is abundant thanks to its streams, canals, mountains, parks and championship golf courses. Just a ten minute drive into the heart of Princeton, you can enjoy all of the amazing things in this historical landmark filled with culture and leisure activities. You can tour through 18th- and 19th-century buildings or wander though Princeton’s Battlefield State Park. If shopping is more your forte, you will be interested in Palmer Square, one of the area’s most upscale shopping venues. Shops carry everything from clothing to specialty foods, home furnishings, and stationery. Princeton is also well known for its plethora of dining options. You can get anything from a hamburger and fries to five-star honey-glazed roast duck. For some after-dinner drinks, you may want to check out Triumph Brew Pub, Alchemist & Barrister, the Ivy, or Tiger’s Tale in Montgomery. If you are in the mood for a good laugh, you can go to Catch a Rising Star Comedy Club or sit back, relax, and enjoy a play at McCarter Theatre.
